October 18th, 1918

Rev. Dr. Adam,

779 University Street,

Montreal.

My dear Dr. Adam:

I sent you a telegram the day before yesterday to the effect that the Sermons have been cancelled owing to the prevalence of the influenza. Just when we shall resume them I cannot say. If the coal situation does not improve it will be necessary for us to close the Convocation Hall for the rest of the session. We hope, however, to be able to have you with us if you will be so kind as to come some time in the near future. Regretting the circumstances that occasioned this change,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Mr. Adam:

We are looking forward with pleasure to having you here to deliver the University Sermon next Sunday, December 15th, and it will give my wife and myself great pleasure if you will be our guest while you are here. Will you be good enough to let me know when we may expect you ?

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

President.
